

BRIDGEWATER COMMUNITY LIONS CLUB PRESENTS:

The 1st annual Chili Cook Off

Sunday, February 12, 2012 11am-1pm

Chili entries may be made by an individual ($10 entry fee) or a business ($20 entry fee). Each entry should include a crockpot full of chili (optionally: cheese or appropriate topping and the crackers or chips that best complement the chili).

You will need to provide a name for your chili that best describes it so that those eating the chili will know what to expect. (HOT Peppers Chili, Sweet and Sour Chili, Veggie Delight Chili.....). Have fun with it!

Also, please decorate your table space to complement your chili. Tables will be provided but you will need to bring an extension cord and your own decorations. There will be an award for best decorated table. Table decorating is optional.

On the day of the contest you will need to be at The Cole-Yeaton Center (Bridgewater Senior Center) at 10 am to set up. Please bring your already cooked chili in a crockpot to keep it hot. You will also need to bring a serving spoon and napkins. Bridgewater Community Lions Club will provide the serving cups for the chili.

The doors will open to the public at 11am. Requested donation at the door will be $3 which includes sampling the chili and a chance for a door prize.

Awards will be given for:

Best overall chili and Best presentation and the People's choice

Come on out of the cold for a good time with friends. We'll have festive music, raffles, a silent auction and snacks & desserts plus lots of CHILI.

Come see who's got the most killer Chili in town!
